

A Night in the Life

Of Your United Way Donation

- 12:00 noon William, who has a developmental disability, is on lunch break from his job at KANDU Industries.
- 1:00 p.m. Jason, age 3, lays down for a nap at Janesville Community Day Care while his low-income single mom works to support them.
- 2:00 p.m. Mary, an 82-year old woman, is transported to her doctor's appointment by a Senior Companion from Rock County Senior Services.
- 3:00 p.m. Tyrell attends an after school program at the Boys and Girls Club of Janesville instead of being left alone in an empty house while his father works to support their single parent family.
- 4:00 p.m. 12-year old Rosa spends some quality time with her Big Sister and receives help with her science project.
- 5:00 p.m. A low-income couple receives budgeting assistance and food through Edgerton Community Outreach.
- 6:00 p.m. Briana, who received a scholarship to participate in Girl Scouts, makes a beaded necklace with her troop in Orfordville.
- 7:00 p.m. A teenage girl is rescued from life on the streets as a runaway because of the outreach efforts of Lutheran Social Services' Runaway and Youth Services (RAYS) program.
- 8:00 p.m. Roger and Amy receive help with parenting skills during the LEAP (Learning Essentials About Parenting) class offered by Exchange Family Resource Center in Evansville.
- 9:00 p.m. Using skills she learned in Partners in Prevention's Positive Youth Development Program, 15-year old Jessie refuses to take the alcoholic drink offered to her at her friend's party.
- 10:00 p.m. A formerly homeless family of four sleeps secure in a home because of The Salvation Army's Project Break Through.
- 11:00 p.m. Leonard, a 37-year old Rock County man living with AIDS, swallows his evening medications he now takes faithfully because of the support he receives from his volunteer at the AIDS Network.

