

ADVANCING THE COMMON GOOD

Focusing on the Building Blocks of a Good Life Education: Helping Children & Youth Achieve Their Potential

FACT: Many studies have shown that hungry children have more problems with academics and behavior.

Jessica, an Edgerton Middle Scholl 6th grader, volunteers to help feed 100 younger students through Edgerton Community Outreach's Breakfast Club.

Jessica ate at the breakfast program in elementary school and now three of her younger siblings do.

Volunteers report that on Monday mornings they can tell which children haven't eaten well over the weekend by how much they eat at the program. Volunteers are touched by the Breakfast Club and feel good about what they are doing because kids need this nutrition to start the school day off right.
